Mail from France, but brings nothing more Material, than the Election of a new Grand Mafter of the Society of Free Masons in that King-dom. There being a Ge-neral Assembly of all the Lodges for this Purpose, after the usual Ceren onies, hey chose and proclaim'd with great Acclamations, he most high and most mighty Lord Charles Ratcliff, larl of Derwentwater, Peer of England, in the loom of the high and mighty Lord Sir James Hector facleane, Knight, Baronet of Scotland, who had en continued in that honourable Office, by Election, pon this Occasion there was a magnificent Feat, which there came, to the Number of Threescore by which there came, to the Rumber of I meelcore suchs, in the Habit of Ceremony; they went in ouces to the Grand Lodge, and after the Repath, the Grand Master and Officers were proclaimed with general Huzza and Sound of Trumpets, Kettle hums, and French Horns, attended with a Concert Vocal and Instrumental Musick; and when the east was ended, to every Bodys Satisfaction, every ofge retired as they came.

The French King has nominated the following entlemen for the next Promotion of Knights of the oly Ghost. The Duke de Villeroy; the Marshal ke de Biron; the Count Offolinsky, Great Treaer of Poland; the Marquis de Monti; the Prince Vainy, a Roman. The King's Declaration was bilified on New Year's Day, for suppressing the x of the Tenth Penny, which was imposed by his ajesty's Declaration of Nov. 17, 1732.

Ance Poem is just published at Paris, written

M. Voltaire, and entituled La Pucelle; or, the ion in it, sufficient to recommend it as much to publick Acceptance, as most of that Author's orks; but they say, that Persons who are pily inclined, cannot heartily approve of it; there-'iis only handed about privately, with all the aution possible. Many People are of Opinion, t now this Author is Abroad, he will not come k to France, but flay in fuch foreign Countries tre he may write with more Freedom than he do in France: Mean time there is Advice, that is fallen dangerously ill at Aix la Chapelle, and his Illness is owing to the vehement Application has lately given to some Works, and in particular Translation of Sir Isaac Newton's Philosophy; to the History of France. Be this as it will, M. Gervasi, is set out Post to take Care of him.

n Almanack is lately come out at Paris, pretend-to give curious and infallible Predictions for which is intituled the D-l's Almanack ein Hell, and indeed may be faid to answer its efully; for it has a Preface and an Imprimatur, icense by Pluto, and contains such indecent Episand Cuts, that great Care is taken to suppress and to discover the Author; notwithstanding th, such is the Fondness of many People for dal and Obscenity, that above 600 Copies were ibuted at a Concert at the Thuilleries, upon last ilmas Day.

ESTERDAY arrived a the Belly, but his Wounds were presently dressed, 15 Years of Age, was married the same Year, viz. Mail from France, but brings and he lived to the last Day of the Month, when he 1733, to the Prince Royal of Pruffes. was drawn through the Town upon a Sledge to the Place of Execution, where after his Flesh was tore off Piece-meal with red hot Tongs, he was broke alive upon the Wheel, where it was intended, that his Body should be exposed to the View of the People; but at the Request of his Kindred, he was buried near the Gibber, and a good Guard placed there to prevent his Corple from being taken away. The Right Hon, the Lords of the Admiralty have received Advice, that the Charlotte Yacht, which was missing in the late Storm, is arrived fafe at Ter-Veer in Holland.

The News which came lately from Hanover, of a Plot discovered to destroy the Reigning Family of Brunswick Wolfembuttle by Poylon, and that the said Conspiracy is of at least 5 Years Existence, has occasioned an Inquiry into the Manner bow the several Dukes have died within that Term; for it may be remembered, that the British Court was twice in Mourning last Year for the Death of two Reigning Dukes of this Family.

The first then was Augustus William of Brunswick

Lunenburg, (Son to Duke Anthony Ulrick) who died the 12th of March 1731, O. S. in the 79th Year of his Age, without Islue by either of his three Wives, who were, 1. Christina Sophia of Brunswick.

2. Sophia Amelia of Holstein Gottorp; and 3. Elizabeth Sophia of Holstein Gottorp. zabeth Sophia of Holstein Norbourg, whom he left Widow after two Years Marriage.

The second was his Brother Lewis Rodolph, who The lecond was his Brother Lewis Rodolph, who died the first of March 1734-5. And by his Wise Christina Louisa, Princess of Octingen, whom he married in 1690, he had three Daughters, viz. 1. Christina Elizabeth, the present Empress of Germany. 2. A Daughter who married the Great Duke of Tuscany, and is fince dead. 3. Antonietta Amelia, married to Ferdinand Albert, Duke of Brunswick, Lunenburg Bevern, his Cousin German and Successor.

The Third and last Duke was the faid Ferdinand Albert, who was born May 19, 1680, than whom Europe had produc'd few Princes of more diftinguish'd Merit, who had equal Knowledge, more Learning and Integrity, or more Valour and Experience in War. He had acquir'd a noble Reputation in Hungary, and was not only Brother-in-Law to the Emperor, but had a Regiment in his Samira to the Emperor, but had a Regiment in his Service, and was Velt Marshal General of his Forces, in which Quality he commanded the Emperor's Army in the War that France declared against his Imperial Majesty in 1733. He acquired great Reputation at the Head of a very weak Army, by hindering the French trom doing any thing more than taking Fort Kehl in the first Campaign, when the Emperor was surprised and unprovided. At the Opening of the Campaign in 1734, when he was also declared by the Dyer, Velt Marshal General of the Armies of the Empire, this Prince opposed the Designs of the Duke of Berwick, by Lines that he cast up at Muhlberg, and which were of good Service to Prince Eugene, in facilitating his Retreat towards Heilbron, when he came to take upon him the Command of the Imperial Army; and that great General own'd, he never faw any thing look better, or that was stronger and better disposed than those Lines, which the Duke of Bevern had guarded, till then, with an Army of not 25,000 Men. He had feven Sons, very hopeful young Princes, and seven Daughters (by his Wife Antonietta Amelia aforesaid) the last of whom was born in 1732, and he died the 23d of August 1735, O. S. (about fix Months after his Father-in-law and Predecessor) being 55 Years and three Months of Age. The Death of this Prince, who was possessed of all the Qualities that could make a People happy, and therefore univerfally beloved by his Subjects, was very fudden; for as he fate at Supper at his Pleafure House at Saltzdahl, about a League from Wolfembuttle, he was seized with a violent Fit of the Cholick, which carried him off in a few Hours.

The Fourth, viz. the present Duke of Brunswick, is Charles (eldest Son to the last Duke) who in 1133, married Philippina Charlotte, 3d Daughter to the King of Prusha, and was with Prince Eugene on the Rhine, when his Father died. This Duke's eldest Sifter, Elizabeth Christina, who is a Princes of about Extract of a Letter from Lisbon, dated the 4th Instant, N. S.

THE Judge Conservatore of the British Nation, a few Days since, sept a Warrant for bringing, as an Evidence in a Cause to be ried before him, a Shoemaker who had taken Saoctuary in a Prison under the Jurisaccion of the Patriarch; but the Officer was not only denied him, but also very much beat and a bused for attempting to do his Duty. The Conservadore, being very much enraged hereat, had recourse to a Stratagem, and ordered the Officer to procure a Number of Persons, who, by different Stories, should get into the Prison, and when they found themselves strong enough, should sieze not only the Shoemaker, but the Jailors, and bring them before the Shoemaker, but the Jailors, and bring them before his Lordship: All which was effected with great Dexterity. They were all confined for a Night, and then the Jailors, were released. This Procedure put the Clergy into a violent Flame, and Excommunication was threatned, in case the Judge did not recant; but he infifted, that he represented the King, and could not, without dishonouring him, make any Submission: So the spiritual Court proceeded, and the Night before they passed Sentence sent him Notice, that if he thought fit he might appeal to the See of Rome (as common on such Occasions); but he still defying them, on Thursday last the Thunder came out in Form, and the Sentence was affixed up in the most publick Places. The Evening after the King held an extraordinary Council, which fate from fix at Night till four next Morning, and agreed that the Judge had acted right. The Patriarch was refused Audience the next Morning, as also in the Afternoon, of the King; the Vicar General was banished fix Leagnes from this City; and the Patriarch has since thought fit to take off the Excommunication.
